

106537 - Can the one who is observing i'tikaaf give lessons and halaqahs?

the question

Is it acceptable for the one who is observing i'tikaaf to teach someone or give a lesson?.

Detailed answer

It is better for the one who is observing i'tikaaf to focus on worship by himself such as dhikr, prayer, reading Qur'aan and so on. But if there is a need to teach someone or learn, there is nothing wrong with that, because it is also remembrance of Allaah (dhikr). End quote.
