

12411 - Conditions of I'tikaaf

the question

What are the conditions of i'tikaaf? Is fasting one of them? Is it permissible for the mu'takif (person in i'tikaaf) to visit one who is sick, or to accept an invitation, or to attend to his family's needs, or to attend a funeral, or to go to work?.

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

It is prescribed to observe i'tikaaf in a mosque in which prayers in congregation are held. If the mu'takif is one of those for whom Jumu'ah is obligatory and the period of his i'tikaaf will include a Friday, it is better for him to stay in a mosque where Jumu'ah prayer is observed.

It is not a condition for him or her to be fasting.

The Sunnah is for the mu'takif not to visit any sick person during his i'tikaaf, or to accept any invitation, attend to his family's needs, attend any funeral or go to work outside the mosque, because it was proven that 'Aa'ishah (may Allaah be pleased with her) said: "The Sunnah for the mu'takif is not to visit any sick person, or attend any funeral, or touch or be intimate with any woman, or go out for any reason except those which cannot be avoided." Narrated by Abu Dawood, 2473.
