

13369 - Do You Need Wudu for Sa`i?

the question

When I did Sa'i between al-Safa and al-Marwah, my wudu became invalidated, and I could not go out to renew my wudu. This happened to me during Tawaf al-Wada` as well.

What is the ruling on one who does Tawaf and Sa'i and does not have wudu? May Allah reward you with good.

Summary of answer

Your Sa'i between al-Safa and al-Marwah is valid, even if it was done without wudu because having wudu is not a condition of Sa'i.

Detailed answer

Your Sa'i between al-Safa and al-Marwah is valid, even if it was done without wudu because having wudu is not a condition of Sa'i . But your Tawaf al-Wada` was not valid, because one of the conditions of Tawaf is that you should be pure.

So you have to repeat it so long as you are still in Makkah, but if you have left and gone back to your country, then you have to have a sacrifice offered in Makkah and given to the poor.

And Allah knows best.
