1431 - Loving a man in secret and praying that she will marry him

the question is it wrong for a girl to love someone in her heart and wish allah to marry her to this guy?

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

If this love is not distracting you from the love of Allaah, and will not lead to you doing or saying anything haraam, then there is nothing wrong with this, in sha Allaah, or with praying to Allaah to make him a part of your future - so long as he is a Muslim who fears Allaah.
