

21595 - Ruling on removing hair from the moustache, armpits and pubes of the deceased, and trimming his nails

the question

Is it permissible to trim the moustache, armpit hairs, nails and pubic hairs of the deceased?

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allaah.

It is mustahabb to trim his moustache and clip his nails. As for shaving his pubic hair and plucking his armpit hair, I do not know of any evidence to indicate that this is prescribed in sharee'ah, so it is better not to do that, because these areas are hidden and not visible like the nails and moustache.

Majmoo' Fataawa wa Maqaalaat Mutanawwi'ah li Samaahat al-Shaykh 'Abd al-'Azeez ibn 'Abd-Allaah ibn Baaz (may Allaah have mercy on him), vol. 13, p. 114

The Shaykh (may Allaah have mercy on him) was also asked:

Should the nails and moustache of the deceased be trimmed?

He replied:

There is no evidence to indicate that. If they are trimmed a little, there is nothing wrong with that. Some of the scholars stated that the nails and moustache should be trimmed. As for shaving the pubes and circumcision, it is not prescribed to do these things in the case of one who is deceased, because there is no evidence to indicate that they should be done.
