the question

×

Is Sujud At-Tilawah (prostration recomended when reading certain verses of the Quran) one or two prostrations?

Summary of answer

Sujud At-Tilawah is one prostration which the Muslim performs when he reads any of the verses of prostration, which are marked in the Mus-haf.

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

"Sujud At-Tilawah is one prostration which the Muslim performs when he reads any of the verses of prostration, which are marked in the Mus-haf.

The jurists agreed that Sujud At-Tilawah consists of one prostration." (Al-Mawsu`ah Al-Fiqhiyyah, 24/331)

For more details, please see the following answers: 4924, 4913, 4890, and 73402.

And Allah knows best.