3280 - Is it necessary to wear one's shirt outside one's pants?

the question

Assalaamu 'alaykum wa rahmatu 'Llahi wa barakatuh

Regarding men wearing western style shirt and pants: Is it permissible for the male to wear his shirt tucked inside of his pants or should he allow the tail of the shirt to hang loosely on the outside covering the private parts ?

Jazzakallahu Khayrun

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allaah.

If the trousers contain nothing haraam and are loose and do not reveal the shape of the private parts, there is nothing wrong with tucking the shirt into the pants, but if they are tight around the area of the private parts, it is necessary to cover that with the shirt or with something else.

And Allaah knows best.
