3307 - Can a woman uncover her hair in front of her fiancé before the nikaah?

the question

Is it permissible for a female to display her hair in front of her fiancé before the Niqah?

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

If a man has seen enough of his fiancée, within the limits set by Islam, to enable him to decide whether to go ahead with the marriage or not, then it is not permissible for her to uncover any part of her body in front of him until after the nikaah.
