

Islam Question & Answer

General Supervisor:
Shaykh Muhammad Saalih al-Munajjid

36990 - Hajj at the expense of someone else

the question

A woman has come to Saudi Arabia and the expenses for her performing the duty of Hajj have been provided by her host. She is asking whether this Hajj will count as the obligatory Hajj of Islam, when she herself has not spent any of her own money on Hajj?.

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allaah.

The validity of her obligatory Hajj is not affected by the fact that she has not spent any of her own money on it, or that she has spent only a little and that most of her Hajj expenses have been paid by someone else. Based on this, if her Hajj meets all the conditions and she does all the essential parts of Hajj, then she has fulfilled the obligation of Hajj, even if someone else pays for it.

And Allaah is the Source of strength.