

Islam Question & Answer

General Supervisor:
Shaykh Muhammad Saalih al-Munajjid

93387 - Animals on which zakaah is due

the question

What are the animals on which zakaah is due?.

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allaah.

The animals on which zakaah is due are the an'aam animals, which are:

1-Camels

2-Cattle, including buffalo

3-Sheep, which includes goats

This applies if their number reaches the nisaab and they are put out to pasture, i.e. they graze and feed from plants on the land, and their owner does not purchase feed for them. See the answer to question no. 40156.

Other kinds of animals are not subject to zakaah unless they are for dealing and trading, in which case zakaah must be paid as for trade goods, such as a person who deals in ostriches, ducks, chickens, horses and so on.

If they are an'aam animals that are given feed, but their owner trades in them, then he should pay zakaah as for trade goods, so he should work out their value when one year has passed and pay one-quarter of one-tenth of their value as zakaah.

It says in al-Mawsoo'ah al-Fiqhiyyah (23/250): The fuqaha' are unanimously agreed that camels, cattle and sheep are the kinds of animals on which zakaah must be paid, and they quoted many ahaadeeth as evidence for that. There is a difference of opinion with regard to horses. As for mules, donkeys and other kinds of animals, no zakaah is due on them unless they are for trade. End quote.

Islam Question & Answer

General Supervisor:

Shaykh Muhammad Saalih al-Munajjid

And Allaah knows best.