

21892 - Praise your Lord for His guidance

the question

I am a young married man. I used to buy tapes of songs, and I swore to divorce my wife if I bought song tapes. Now I want to buy religious tapes.

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

Praise your Lord for blessing you with guidance. The one who repents from sin is like one who did not sin at all. Your vow of divorce was related to song tapes, not all kinds of tapes. So go ahead and buy religious tapes and listen to them, but do not buy the tapes concerning which you made your vow of divorce.
